

VISITOR FAQ'S

Where is the Beer and Wine Exhibition located on the Fairgrounds?

The first Indiana Beer & Wine Exhibition, at the 2014 Indiana State Fair, August 1-17, will be located in the Grand Hall across from the newly renovated Coliseum.

What are the hours of operation?

The hours for the Beer & Wine Exhibition are 1:00pm to 9:00pm. Last call will be at 8:00pm.

What kind of beer/wine will be featured? Is it only Indiana craft beer and wine?

Yes, the exhibit will showcase Indiana Breweries and Wineries only. A variety of beers and wines will be for sale by the glass and four breweries and four Wineries will be featured daily at tasting tables, featured as exhibitors/. Check our exhibit schedule to plan your visit! (bit.ly/beerwineexhibit)

How much does it cost to visit the Indiana State Fair Beer & Wine Exhibition?

After you've paid to enter the fair, the Indiana State Fair Beer & Wine Exhibition is free to visit. Those 21 and older will be able to enjoy beer and wine tastings or beer and wine by the glass at a charge.

Is the serving of beer and wine limited per patron?

There will be serving limits. Total alcohol consumption will be the equivalent of 3 glasses of beer or 3 glasses of wine. (4 tastings equal one serving).

Beer by the glass:	12oz. glass = 1 serving*
Beer tasting:	(4) 3oz glasses. = 1 serving *
Wine by the glass:	5oz. glass= 1 serving
Wine tasting:	(4) 1.5oz. glasses= 1 serving

The State Fair requests that craft beer alcohol content be 8% or less.*

Who is allowed in the Grand Hall?

Only persons 21 years of age or older may enter the venue. The Indiana State Fair Commission will regulate the venue with crowd management personnel that will perform ID checks upon entering and additional checks at all severing stations.

Can I bring food and drink into the venue?

No outside food or drink will be permitted in the venue. Soft drinks, water, and light food fare will be sold in the Beer & Wine Exhibit.

Can I take my beer/wine outside to enjoy?

All products (alcoholic or non-alcoholic) served in the Beer & Wine Exhibit will need to be discarded when exiting the building.

What kind of educational aspects will be included in the Beer and Wine Exhibition?

Educational and information displays will be set up throughout the exhibition. We will have banners with Beer & Wine related facts and information hung throughout the exhibit. The Indiana State Museum will also be displaying their exhibit, American Spirits: The Rise and Fall of Prohibition. The most informative element of the exhibit will be the conversations between you and the Indiana vintners and brewers.

Will I be able to purchase beer or wine to take home with me?

Beer and wine will not be sold for consumption outside of the Beer & Wine Exhibit.

Can I buy souvenirs in the exhibit?

The exhibit in Grand Hall will not have merchandise for sale, but the Gazebo Gift shop will be selling various items commemorating and celebrating the Indiana Beer & Wine exhibit.